

Dugi otok and Telašćica nature park

Self-Guided Tour

Starting from Zadar (or Sali on Dugi otok). Have a day out of the city, on a peaceful island Dugi otok. Only a short speedboat ride away, you begin your visit to Dugi otok in a magical Sali. From Sali you drive through an island with your friendly guide to the entrance of Nature Park Telašćica. Here you have a free time to visit a view point of magnificent cliffs steep above the sea! Locally called "Stene". Afterwards you walk to the lake "Mir" (Peace), the unique salty lake inside an island. Depending on your wishes capabilities, you can walk further around the lake, or return back to your transfer and to Sali to have a lunch and swim or relax time before your sunset boarding to boat back to Zadar.

Overview

At morning, buy tickets and find your speedboat at Zadar central city harbour (time tables vary on Sunday and National Holiday!).

Boat will take you to Dugi otok, place called Sali. Here your local guide – transfer will wait for you, and you will agree the time to start and finish the Telašćica visit. You will buy from him entrance tickets to NP Telašćica, and he will advise you about best place for a lunch and beach depending on your preferences.

After short transfer to Nature Park entrance, you have time on your own to visit the magnificent salty lake called "Mir", walk around and visit viewpoints to breath-taking cliffs and views to National Park Kornati, the most beautiful National Park in Croatia, full of small islands.

After the relaxing Telašćica hike, your guide will transfer you back to Sali where you can have lunch, a swim on the beach and board the boat that will take you back to Zadar.
